Andreas Schönenberger, CEO of Salt Mobile SA, said: "This ranking underlines both our relentless investments in customer service and the customer centricity of our company. I am very proud of the team's achievement and this excellent result, which offhand places us at the top of customer service for fixed line products in Germany, Switzerland and Austria. It demonstrates the knowledgeability, the dedication and the focus on customer satisfaction of our agents."

Who has the best hotline service for broadband services in Switzerland? That was the question that connect aimed to answer with a hotline test performed across a total of 15 service providers in Germany, Austria and Switzerland. Not only has Salt been ranked number one among Swiss competitors but effectively achieved the best score among all tested providers.

With 451 out of a maximum of 500 possible points, Salt has particularly convinced in the category "waiting time" in which it clearly dominates UPC Cablecom and Swisscom but also Sunrise. Yet, the team behind Salt Fiber also managed to achieve a score of 312 / 350 points in the category "quality of statements made", which indicates that in almost all cases the team behind Salt Fiber provided customers with correct and complete answers.
