Outstanding Salt! Outstanding Network at Outstanding Prices

Salt achieved a significant milestone by advancing to an outstanding rating in this year's Connect mobile network test. With 950 points out of a maximum of 1,000 points, Salt joined its other two national competitors in obtaining the highest test rating across all three test criteria: voice, data and crowdsourcing. This result is the fruit of the company's significant investments over the past years and reiterates Salt's commitment to offering its subscribers the best service at outstanding prices.

According to the Connect mobile network test, published on November 29th, 2023, Salt achieved its highest score ever, securing 950 out of 1,000 points. Salt improved its score by 5 points from the previous year and has continuously increased its score over the last six years. The 30th edition of the Connect mobile network test demonstrates that Switzerland boasts of excellent network service quality, with only minor differences between the operators.

Salt has followed its steadfast strategy to continuously invest in its network by modernizing the existing network and further deploying new 5G capabilities. In 2023, Salt's network coverage of the population in Switzerland reached 99.9%. In areas where 5G+ is available, Salt subscribers can enjoy speeds of up to 1.7 Gbit/s. The outstanding distinction in the Connect mobile network test is the pinnacle of the company's hard work and investment in the network.

Max Nunziata, CEO at Salt, comments: "We take pride in seeing our efforts bearing fruits. This is not only a big step for our company, but also excellent news for our subscribers, who benefit from an ever-improving network. We are consolidating our position among the top-quality mobile networks worldwide, making Salt the Smart Choice for Swiss consumers looking for top quality at fair prices."
