

“Outstanding” Salt Network: Record Improvement Puts the Operator Neck-and-Neck with Swisscom and Tied on Voice Reliability

With a remarkable +20 points leap, Salt reaches 972 out of 1,000 — the strongest improvement of any Swiss provider — putting the company just 1% behind the national leader. This confirms Salt as the fastest-advancing network in Switzerland and shows that the gap at the top is closing quickly. Salt also reaches joint first place with Swisscom in “Voice Reliability,” underscoring the consistency of its network and the impact of sustained investment. For the third year in a row, Salt earns the highest “Outstanding” rating, demonstrating continued technological progress and a network fully on par with Switzerland’s other operators.

According to the 32nd Connect Mobile Network Test published on 26 November 2025, Salt achieved the best result in its history. With a 20-point performance jump over the previous year, from 952 to 972 out of 1,000 points – Salt delivers the strongest performance improvement among all Swiss national providers. Salt has closed the gap dramatically, shrinking last year’s 25-point deficit to just 11 — now only 1% behind the leader.

Salt's performance shows strong process in all categories - voice, data and crowd. As a joint winner in the "Voice" category, Salt scored 268 points on par with Swisscom and Sunrise, just two points shy of the maximum of 270. And in terms of voice reliability, Salt achieved the highest number of top scores, matching Swisscom.

Salt has consistently increased its score over the past eight years, driven by continuous investment in its network modernising and 5G capacity expansion. This year's results highlight significant progress in 5G coverage, especially in rural areas. With 99.9% Swiss population coverage and speeds up to 1.7 Gbits/s where 5G is available, Salt subscribers can rely on a awarded fast and consistent mobile experience.

Max Nunziata, CEO at Salt, comments: "We are very proud of these results, which reward years of continued investment to offer our subscribers and corporate customers the highest possible mobile connectivity, For the 3rd consecutive year, we achieve the highest possible rating and are proud to share the number 1 position in voice."
